9TH MMS Round Table Conference will set the stage for dynamic and high-impact industry conversations, beginning with a networking lunch with the keynote address, followed by an intensive 90-minute Power Round Table discussion designed to encourage open dialogue and strategic exchange. The programme will further feature multiple industry presentations, an international in-depth session, and a panel discussion with leading print experts, offering diverse perspectives on emerging trends and challenges. The day will culminate in a powerful networking dinner at the Exhibitors' Night, providing an exclusive platform for meaningful connections and collaborations. The conference will host eight specialised round table discussions, each guided by eminent dignitaries and subject-matter experts, ensuring focused, solution-driven deliberations.

THE CONCEPT OF ROUND TABLE

Our Unique concept of Round Tables is here to allow you to interact with various personalities of our print industry. A particular topic would be given to every table, one can choose whichever table suits best for him/her. Each table will consist of 9-10 members, with each one of them eager to share their thoughts on the topic. Be there at the right table and make the most out of this opportunity.
